Kimberly teaches an average of many manymany students and has been teaching for 20 years.

I have been teaching harp lessons for over 20 years. I love my students and the opportunity I have to share in their lives as they pursue music. My students have had many wonderful opportunities including performances at the World Harp Congress and the American Harp Society Summer Institute. They also have performed in the pedagogy training course at Brigham Young University. I began my own studies of the harp with ShruDeLi Ownbey. I have also studied with the late Carrol McLaughlin, Susann McDonald and Linda Wood Rollo.

I also perform in several orchestras, am a music volunteer at both St. Luke's and St. Al's hospitals.

Performance Services: I provide music for weddings, parties, worship services, funerals, etc.

Levels taught: Beginning-Intermediate

Ages taught: children, teens adults

Andelin teaches an average of 12 students and has been teaching for 8 years.

Private lessons in harp, piano, flute. College music theory classes. I am personally invested in my own music learning and have continued my musical education through hours of self-study

I tailor the course of teaching to the needs of each individual student. I believe it's important to get each student playing the music they want to learn as soon as possible to ensure continual learning and enjoyment.

Ages taught: 9 and up

Rachel teaches an average of 15-20 students and has been teaching for many many years.

23 years of musical education, theory, and long-term private lessons in Classical, Celtic, and Oldtime styles. My lessons include everything from sight reading to learning by ear, theory, fundamental chords and improv, and performance opportunities as well. I love helping folks along their musical journey at whatever level they are. Building students' confidence and a love for the music they play is the best part of my day!
