Robert teaches an average of 42 students and has been teaching for 30 years.

Bob attended Berklee College of Music as a bass major including theory and composition. Bob returned to the Philadelphia area and decided to continue his formal education studying piano and was accepted into the school of music at West Chester University as a piano major with a degree in music education. Bob studied piano with Dr. Robert Pennington and piano pedagogy on a masters' level with Dr. Paul Blair. Bob performed a Beethoven Sonata and a Schumann Fantasy Suite as part of his senior recital requirements. Bob has been teaching all levels of piano including beginning students to early advanced students for 30 years. Additionally, Bob teaches classical piano, popular music, theory, composition, jazz harmony, fake book studies and improvisation. Bob's ultimate goal with his students is to transfer his teaching skills to his students so that the student acquires the tools to become their own teacher as time passes.

I travel to students homes in Meridian, Boise, parts of Nampa, Kuna, and Eagle.

Hal teaches an average of 34 students and has been teaching for 39 years.

I studied piano with Del Parkinson in 1980-1982, have been playing guitar since I was 12 years old. I've studied classical guitar, jazz, country, rock, and pop.

I was the head of the music program from 2000-2012 at SunHawk Academy in Saint George, Utah. It was an addiction recovery facility for teens. They closed in 2012 due to the economic downturn.

Along with troubled youth, I have also successfully taught children with Asperger Syndrome, ADHD, and Autism.

I gigged extensively in the Los Angeles area in the 1970's and played well over 1,400 live performances both as a solo artist and with a band between 1974 and 2012. I started teaching piano part time in 1982, guitar in 1983, and have been teaching full time since 1993. 1993-1998 teaching in the Utah Valley area (Provo/Orem Utah), 1998-2016 in Saint George, Utah, and here in Parma since 2016.
